

" Developing successful people" - Training For Career and Life Coaches

Worklife Solutions – we train great coaches

Worklife Solutions is a leading provider of career and life coach training. Its director, Cassandra Gaisford, is an internationally recognised coaching expert who is passionate about the benefits of corporate and personal coaching.

Become A Career or Life Coach and Inspire Others

Our programmes meet the highest benchmarks of quality and professionalism set by International Coaching Programme (ICF) certification. By becoming a Worklife Certified Coach you will be able to leverage off our expertise and market credibility as a leader in the career and life coaching profession.

Our training is practical and hands-on. You'll start coaching in your first month of training, and gain your certification within 3 months.

Our Programmes

Career coaching will show you how to help others gain the skills to identify their career options, and market themselves successfully so they can get the job they want.

Life Coaching passes on the skills coaches need to help people gain greater self-awareness and control over their lives.

Why choose Worklife Solutions?

Our small classes - We deliberately keep our intake numbers small so that our coaches in training receive the personal assistance they deserve and need.

Our passion - We are the only training provider to focus on passion and intuition as an important tool kit in helping others make informed decisions. Learn how to use The Passion Pack, Worklife Solution's unique career planning tool.

Our focus on practical results - Our coaching methodology focuses on delivering results for people, while dealing with the 'whole person'. It's designed to deliver performance and life-work balance.

Proven coaching systems - Work with our unique Fast Track coaching model - a proven coaching system that gets results quickly for your clients. Our systems and unique methodology have already helped hundreds of people from wide and diverse backgrounds to achieve career success.

Access to clients - Unlike other training providers. we will help you to find people who are happy for you to practise your new skills on. When you have completed your training we'll refer clients to you.

Professional coaching materials – As a Worklife Coach you'll receive specially designed and branded coaching materials to start your coaching career in a credible and professional manner.

Ongoing support - We stay in touch with our graduates, helping them to continue to build confidence and update their coaching skills.

Worklife graduates get jobs! - 100% of our graduates have found employment – even before course graduation! Coaching has been ranked by numerous studies as one of the fastest growing professions and the experience of our Worklife Coaching Graduates proves it!
